

Update on COVID-19/Coronavirus

Dallas Build Expo March 17-18 2020

Updated March 6, 2020

We understand concerns about COVID-19 Coronavirus are top of mind, and we want to be as transparent as possible and share information about what we are doing to prepare for the Dallas Build Expo.

We want to assure you of the following:

- Our top priority is focused on the health and safety of all participants at Dallas Build Expo 2020 including attendees, exhibitors, vendors, staff, industry partners, and others involved in the show.
- We are proceeding as planned to hold a safe and successful Dallas Build Expo on March 17-18, 2020.

Ultimately, we encourage everyone to make responsible decisions and stay home if they are sick. Our Show Management has dedicated resources to provide quick responses to inquiries related to COVID-19. Attendees and exhibitors with questions or concerns are encouraged to email our response team at info@buildexpousa.com.

What is Show Management doing to prepare for the shows in regards to COVID-19?

- We are closely monitoring the news and will follow any protocols that are provided by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO). We encourage exhibitors and attendees to take common-sense precautions by using hand sanitizer and following these guidelines set by the CDC when they are onsite at the show.
- We are working closely with all show partners including the Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center to ensure the safety of all show participants.
- We are taking steps to address concerns by providing heightened levels of cleanliness, including:
  - Working with the KBHCC to ensure additional hand sanitizers will be provided throughout the shows.
